Health and Safety Representative (HSR)
Annual One Day Refresher Training

Work Health and Safety (WHS) is about ensuring a healthy, safe workplace to prevent illness and injury.

This is an annual one day refresher training course that health and safety representatives (HSRs) are entitled to attend under the WHS Act. It provides HSRs who have completed an initial five-day course with the opportunity to keep their skills and knowledge up-to-date. This includes applying the WHS legislation in practical scenarios to enable HSRs to help solve day to day problems in their work group.

Participants will learn:
- Work Health and Safety Act 2012
- WHS consultation
- The principles and activities of risk management
- Issue resolution
- Provisional Improvement Notices (PINs).

Outcome: A Statement of Attendance.

Prerequisites: You must be employed or have access to an organisation to conduct an on-the-job project.

Location: At your workplace or at the Campbell Street, Launceston, Devonport and Burnie campuses.

Cost: $265 per person.

Duration: One day.
