Work Health and Safety (WHS) is about ensuring safe and healthy working conditions, and preventing illness and injury in the workplace. This course introduces participants to the legislative requirements of the employer and employee, and to the preventative nature of health and safety. Participants will gain the skills needed to describe the legal framework and strategies that act to safeguard workplace health and safety and to conduct workplace inspections.

It is suitable for all levels in any industry – persons conducting a business or undertaking, officers, line managers and supervisors or workers and provides an overview of WHS.

Participants will learn:
- About elements of WHS legislation
- About consultation
- About provision of WHS training
- To perform basic risk management
- To complete an introduction to incident investigation
- To perform WHS record keeping.
